FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Papergirl Vancouver: Gifting Art to Unsuspecting Strangers on the Streets of Vancouver

July 1, 2015 (Vancouver, B.C.) – Papergirl Vancouver, in collaboration with the Roundhouse Community Arts & Recreation Centre, invites the community to participate in the 5th year of this volunteer-driven, pedal-powered project. Combining art, philanthropy, and bicycles, Papergirl uses the gift of giving art to build community and enact positive social change.

Papergirl Vancouver invites artists of all ages, creative backgrounds, and abilities to submit their work. Participants will connect with their community and become part of a larger global Papergirl movement. Their artwork will be featured in a non-juried, uncurated public exhibition at the Roundhouse Community Centre from August 24th to August 28th, 2015. Artwork will then be taken down, rolled up, and gifted to the unsuspecting public by volunteer cyclists, on August 29th.

Artwork submissions can be dropped off in person or mailed to the Roundhouse Community Centre by August 21, 2015. Please visit our website for more details and to complete a submission form: www.papergirlvancouver.com.

About Papergirl Vancouver

Papergirl Vancouver is an inclusive global art project that connects the community and celebrates art through the spirit of unexpected giving - on bicycles. An idea that began in 2006 in Berlin has since spread worldwide. Papergirl projects are united by their purpose of redefining street art; taking art out of the galleries and into the streets, in the style of the American paperboy; and building community through the gift of giving art.
